‘Check-in’ Tool – Practice: Engaging

An effective Catholic school advisory body engages in learning and well-being conversations and partnerships.

Where are you along the continuum of effective practice for the ‘Engaging’ dimension? Begin by thinking about and recording below what you are doing well, what activities/strategies you are currently implementing or working on, and what you still need to address. Think about it in terms of your internal processes as an advisory body and in terms of your engagement with your school community.

What are we doing well…

What are we focusing on …

What do we need to do …
