Core Practices Cut-Outs

These disks can be used to aid discussion of the core practices that should underpin the work of advisory bodies. They can be enlarged and cut out and placed on the table for individual or group reflection. Reflection questions could include: What do these words evoke for you personally/ as a group? In what ways is this core practice(s) evident in our work? What could we be doing differently?